

The Village Winemaker

Thoughts from The Village Winemaker Fall for Wine!

It was a great summer and I've enjoyed every minute with family and friends, but there is something about the fall, when the kids make their way back to school and our daily routines get back in order that fill me with purpose and drive. It helps that I've just come back from my brother's wedding in Jamaica and I am rested (well, sort of) and happy to return to the work I so enjoy!

The boys, William and Benjamin, have traded in their soccer balls for hockey sticks and skates as we gear up for Hockey season. A very busy time in our household, but so much fun!

The shop has seen it's fair share of events lately, with the Customer Appreciation BBQ and our very first Paint and Wine night. See our website for a view of my artistic talent! We are already planning more activities, so watch your inbox and remember that we are on Facebook and Instagram regularly. Our website, www.thevillagewinemaker.ca, will always have the most current information on upcoming events and specials.

Lastly, I'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate Elizabeth for one year of being on the TVW team. And once again to thank you for your patronage. It is a privilege to serve you and meet your wine making needs.

Cheers,

John Seaga

Customer Appreciation BBQ

On Saturday, September 12th we had our Annual Customer Appreciation BBQ. Although Mother Nature did not cooperate, our new tent sheltered us nicely. We also brought in some tables and chairs to enjoy some indoor warmth. There was so much food! Anthony's famous jerk chicken and pork, hamburgers, hot dogs and an array of side dishes lovingly assembled by my aunt Mickie. It was an enjoyable afternoon filled with good friends sharing some good food and conversation. Thanks to all who attended.

Paint and Wine

On Thursday, September 17th we held our very first "Paint and Wine" night. Our artistic leader in this endeavor was Marvyn Rivett. He was brilliant as he led us through the creation of a still life. I've included mine here. I call it "My wine rainbow". Hey, no judgement! We all had a blast and I do believe that we will do this again real soon! Check out the website to see pictures of some of the creations that went home that night! I want to thank Marvyn for agreeing to do this with us and for all the very talented friends who came out to get their "Artsy" on!

More Food & Wine

A bit of this and that...

Wine and Dine at The Summit Garden Chinese Restaurant: Planned for November sometime - check website for details! The menu will be designed to match several wine pairings with the help of a sommelier from RJS. A full eight course meal, including hors d'ouvres and entertainment. $60 per person / Please RSVP as space is limited.

A Note From Liz...

"Fall" in Love! Cheesy, I know. But what better message than to remind ourselves to take the time to fall in love with the beauty that is all around us. The beauty found in ourselves, family, friends and the environment. Take the time to appreciate the beauty that is in all that we do. I'm suggesting that now that the air is crisp you get out there and take a brisk refreshing walk. Bring along your best friend, husband/wife, children, the dog. Take deep breaths and smell the fall in the air. Feel alive! Oakville has so many parks and trails, even dog parks (leash free areas) to take advantage of. So tonight after dinner instead of retiring to the family room, get your runners on and head out. There's something very peaceful about an evening walk followed up with a glass of wine in your comfies. I bet you'll even experience a better night sleep!

And one last thing...I've completed an entire year here at the shop...It has been an absolute pleasure spending time with you all! Thanks for making my first year fabulous!
